

JOB DESCRIPTION

TITLE:	Children and Young People's Mentor
ACCOUNTABLE TO:	Children and Young People's Team Leader
TEAM:	Children and Young People's Centre

Safeguarding

Save the Family requires all of its employees to abide by its policies on safeguarding and promoting the welfare of vulnerable children and adults. An Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Services (DBS) (Previously known as CRB) check is required with this post. As well as this position being subject to a satisfactory enhanced disclosure, this job offer will also be subject to a minimum of two satisfactory references.

Values and Attitude

All Save the Family employees are expected to demonstrate the Charity's values by working positively as part of a team delivering vital high quality services to residents to create a culture where all are valued and encouraged. In return, Save the Family will offer you support, training and development and the best resources that we are able to provide to help you give your best in your work with us.

Mentoring Approach

Save the Family provides a safe residential community for homeless and troubled families where safeguarding is paramount. We aim to keep families together and help them create a positive future through our unique Family Mentoring approach.

Mentoring means that as family role models we develop a relationship based on trust, appropriate challenge, guidance and empowerment with families, which enables them to identify and overcome barriers, become independent and reach their true potential.

Our approach to mentoring is both person and family-centred, demonstrating empathy, maturity and mutual respect, so that we can help individuals and whole families to develop resilience and a positive attitude towards education, social and life skills, relationships, health, work and essential routines. The methodology is based on showing by example and empowering the family to live as a cohesive unit.

At Save the Family, mentoring provides non-judgemental emotional support, guidance and a sense of continuity and stability, which may otherwise be missing in the lives of individuals. Through successful mentoring families develop essential social skills, recognise their own strengths and self-worth grow in confidence and overcome their difficulties.

Job Purpose

To act as a mentor working alongside children and young people to provide advice, support, information and role-modelling to enable them to overcome difficulties and barriers in order to achieve identified outcomes and reach their potential. To work closely with other agencies as part of a team around the family approach.

Principal Accountabilities
